ABOUT...

Jack Bobley is an artist and producer from Washington, DC. Although originally trained in classical and jazz music, his vocal and synth driven music is more reminiscent of James Blake or FKA Twigs. Leading his band with a vocoder, he delivers the vocal harmonies of Bon Iver with the high octane energy of DC hardcore. Having performed as far as Tokyo, Japan, Jack Bobley is currently based in New York and just released his awaited album Colorless in August.
